

Management and Editorial Board: artemedievale@uniroma1.it

“Arte medievale” journal

History Anthropology Religions Art History, Media And Performing Arts

Sapienza University of Rome

Aldo Moro Square, 5

00185 Rome

The manuscripts must be sent to the following address: artemedievale@uniroma1.it.

They must include:

- text with closing notes;
- pictures (high resolution .tif or .jpg images of at least 300 dpi);
- captions;
- photo credits;
- abstracts must be limited to a predetermined number of characters (usually 1,500), 1 in the language of the article; 1 in Italian, and 1 in English;
- 4/5 keywords (in the language of the article; both in Italian and English).

All submitted articles must be written according to the journal’s editorial guidelines, which are posted here.

After being approved by the Editorial Board, the manuscripts will be submitted for peer review. To allow for impartial evaluation at every stage, the journal adheres to the current international peer review procedures, whereby each contribution is forwarded to anonymous reviewers.